Cybersex trafficking is a new and devastating form of slavery_

It's a rapidly growing problem as internet access increases everywhere

Now, paedophiles worldwide can direct the live sexual abuse of boys and girls, many under 10 years old

For a crime, it's low risk, easy to do, with high potential reward

The reality_

54% of victims rescued in IJM cases are 1-12 years old

Victims can be exploited in any location with a computer and the internet – or just a mobile phone

Philippine authorities are already receiving thousands of referrals a month

A young boy dreams of being a superhero. But those who should protect him, don't. He cannot escape the evil in his home.

Unless protection comes_

Cassie was tricked to move to Manila when she was 12. She had big dreams, but what she found was her nightmare when she was forced to perform sex acts in front of a camera.

Until rescue came_

Please note: this is one of the most difficult subjects we've ever talked about. The content of these videos is not suitable for children.

IJM is applying its unique expertise ending trafficking in the Philippines to fight this new type of crime_

1,275+

victims rescued from 'traditional' trafficking

75-86%

reduction of minors available for sex across 3 Philippine cities

57+

victims already rescued from this new abuse in less than a year

SHUT DOWN CYBERSEX TRAFFICKING

Every child should have someone to protect them. Will you?

"When I go home…he is waiting for me, because there's customers waiting for me."
