Who we are

For over 180 years, the Good Shepherd, a Catholic religious congregation founded by Saint Mary Euphrasia Pelletier, has served the world. We address social issues empowering women and girls in vulnerable situations, offering them hope and a brighter future.

- The Good Shepherd Sisters are a global organization operating in 72 countries, dedicated to empowering women and children facing exploitation, trafficking, abuse, and injustice.
- With a rich history of service, we provide shelter, education, rehabilitation, and advocacy to break cycles of poverty and violence.
- Our mission is to create a world where vulnerable individuals have the support and resources to build a brighter future.

Good Shepherd Thailand, established in Bangkok in 1965, has a long history of supporting vulnerable women and children, including those impacted by human trafficking

Our dedicated team of 21 Sisters and 100 lay partners in mission, alongside collaborators like Caritas Thailand and government offices, works tirelessly across various locations to combat this issue.

Our goal of Anti-human trafficking program is
