

Close

CHAIR OF THE TERRE DES HOMMES BOARD LYSIANE ANDRÉ EXPLAINS HOW WE CAN HELP CHILDREN FULFIL THEIR POTENTIAL

New interactive Annual Report

now online →

OUR SECRETARY GENERAL, IGNACIO PACKER, GIVES THE RUN DOWN ON THE STATE OF CHILD RIGHTS IN 2016

HIGHLIGHT TOPICS

LATEST NEWS

IOC CHILD RIGHTS PROMISES MUST MOVE FROM PAPER TO PRACTICE, SAYS TDH

BY PAUL GREENEY

ON SEPTEMBER 5, 2017

POSTED IN NEWS AND EVENTS

The International Olympic Committee (IOC) has been warned it must deliver on promises to protect child and human rights ahead of the 130th IOC session in Peru next week. This is the message Terre des Hommes is delivering to IOC President Thomas Bach in a brand new video released today ahead of their meeting in [...]

CONTINUE READING →

THE DIGITAL TRANSFORMATION OF EMERGENCY RELIEF AND HEALTHCARE

BY TDH

ON AUGUST 22, 2017

POSTED IN AFRICA, EMERGENCY, HEALTH, NEWS AND EVENTS

The digital revolution is already having many effects on our society. Mobile apps and other resources abound with convenient solutions for improving people’s lives – from ordering food to finding a date. But technological advances are also playing a big role in far more crucial ways – helping organisations deliver quality, targeted humanitarian action and [...]

CONTINUE READING →

REMEMBERING RIO 2016: A YEAR AFTER THE OLYMPIC GAMES

BY TDH

ON AUGUST 8, 2017

POSTED IN BRAZIL, HUMAN RIGHTS, NEWS AND EVENTS

In a series of interviews with the Children Win Campaign, a year on we remember how Rio residents’ lives came second to the Olympics. “To the future host countries, I ask that people stay alert and not let mega events be something more important than the life of the people in a city.” Rio-Mother Ana Paula [...]

CONTINUE READING →

UPDATES: DESTINATION UNKNOWN

SOUTH SUDAN: HOW FAMILIES ARE SURVIVING SIEGE CONDITIONS THANKS TO URBAN FARMING

In South Sudan, 6 million people – half the country’s population – are affected by food insecurity, and the health and lives of children are

READ MORE »

MIDDLE EASTERN ORGANISATIONS CHAMPION CHILD RIGHTS IN GLOBAL COMPACT ON MIGRATION

Civil society organisations from across the Middle East and North Africa are mobilising to push for staunch human and child rights protection for children and

READ MORE »

HOW EU AND LIBYAN RECKLESSNESS IS FUELLING REFUGEE RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN THE MEDITERRANEAN

The decision by three civil society organisations to temporarily cease search and rescue operations in the Mediterranean Sea, due to increased hostility from Libyan authorities, is yet another setback for protecting the human rights of children and other people on the move around the Mediterranean.

CHILDREN ON THE MOVE PHOTOGRAPH CHALLENGES TO SURVIVAL IN JOHANNESBURG

Children on the move in Johannesburg, South Africa have taken pictures of the daily challenges they have to overcome as part of a photo exhibition

READ MORE »

HOW YOUNG AFGHANS IN SWEDEN HOPE TO PUT THE BRAKES ON DANGEROUS DEPORTATIONS

RECENT TWEETS

Tweets by @TDH_IF

Terre des Hommes @TDH_IF

Families in #SouthSudan under siege & millions are without enough food.

But #UrbanFarming is providing a lifeline bit.ly/2eLTb2Q

♡ [↗]

6h

Embed

View on Twitter

Popular protests have sprung up across Sweden against forcibly returning people, including unaccompanied minors, to Afghanistan. Anna Benedictsson from Destination Unknown campaign member One Third

READ MORE »

UPDATES: CHILDREN WIN

IOC MUST PRIORITISE CHILD RIGHTS

The International Olympic Committee has been warned it must deliver on promises to protect human and child rights, ahead of the 130th IOC session in Lima, Peru next week. The call comes from the international child rights organisation, Terre des

READ MORE »

REMEMBERING RIO: ‘IN OUR CITY, THERE WAS NO LEGACY’

One year ago this week the 2016 Rio Olympics began. Sadly for many of the city’s poorer people – especially the young – what should have been a joyous celebration came at a terrible cost. Throughout this week, in a

READ MORE »

REMEMBERING RIO: ‘MY FAMILY AND MY COMMUNITY WERE VIOLATED’

One year ago this week the 2016 Rio Olympics began. Sadly for many of the city’s poorer people – especially the young – what should have been a joyous celebration came at a terrible cost. Throughout this week, in a

READ MORE »

REMEMBERING RIO: ‘PEOPLE’S LIVES CAME SECOND TO THE OLYMPICS’

One year ago this week the 2016 Rio Olympics began. Sadly for many of the city’s poorer people – especially the young – what should have been a joyous celebration came at a terrible cost. Throughout this week, in a

READ MORE »

THE HIGH PRICE OF RIO 2016: LISTEN TO THE VOICES OF THE AFFECTED

One year ago this week the 2016 Rio Olympics began. Sadly for many of the city’s poorer people – especially the young – what should have been a joyous celebration came at a terrible cost. Throughout this week, in a

READ MORE »

TWITTER OTHER TERRE DES HOMMES

Other Terre des hommes

A Twitter list by @tdh\_ch

Terre des hommes organisations tweeting accross the globe.

Children Win @ChildrenWin

Promises on paper are not enough! Ask #IOC to follow up pledge to respect #humanrights next week in Lima #RoadtoLima
youtu.be/H6y1Hb\_Myi8

YouTube @YouTube

20s

Embed

View on Twitter