

A child in servitude walking her counterpart to school. Picture was taken a month before the quake.

A nine-year-old girl in servitude carrying a five gallon bucket of water. She's from the countryside, serving a family in a camp in Port-au-Prince.

Working with children at a camp.